David Hay

Group General Manager – Kingfisher Bay Resort Group

David Hay was appointed Group General Manager for the Kingfisher Bay Resort Group - which operates Kingfisher Bay Resort, Eurong Beach Resort, Fraser Island Barges, Cool Dingo Tours and Fraser Explorer Tours - in January 2011.

Prior to this, David has managed the Group's Tours and Marine operations for a number of years and has been involved with tourism on the Fraser Coast in various roles including a stint with the Fraser Island Company.

He is a past Chairman of the Fraser Island World Heritage Area Community Advisory Committee which advises both the State and Federal Governments on matters concerning Fraser Island and remains an active member of this group. He is also a past Chairman of Tourism Fraser Coast and served on the board for more than ten years.

David holds a Bachelor of Business in Tourism and has previously held management positions within the local Fraser Coast tourism and education industries.

In November 2014, David was awarded the John Craig-Gardener award for outstanding contribution to the Tourism Industry at the inaugural Fraser Coast Business and Tourism awards. This was given in recognition of David's contribution to the Fraser Coast tourism industry for more than twenty years.
